The National Scout Centre of the „Deutsche Pfadfinderschaft Sankt Georg“, the Catholic Scout association in Germany, is located in the heart of the Hoher Westerwald region. Perched high above the small town of Westernohe, we offer you inviting guest and seminar rooms, vast camping grounds amongst nature, and many services which will make your time with us a memorable experience.

We place particular importance on ensuring people with disabilities have a pleasant stay. We also wish to mention our environmental education services, as committing to our environment and sustainable development is important to us. We will be glad to compile an itinerary for you, and advise you on group stays, regardless of whether or not these include people with disabilities.

We offer room and space for:

- School groups
- Children and youth recreation
- Courses, seminars and meetings
- Family recreation and celebrations
- Club meetings, choir and orchestra rehearsals
- Camps and major events

Whether it be learning and working together, celebrating, or simply taking in the tranquillity and resting, the National Centre provides a pleasant setting for events for young and old. We look forward to welcoming you!

Your DPSG National Centre team

The DPSG Bundeszentrum is one of the worldwide SCENES centres (Scout centres of excellence for nature and environment).

Modern and comfortable: the Haus unterm Kiesel

This highly comfortable guesthouse is particularly ideal for meetings and training events, as well as for disabled guests. School groups and other groups will also be right at home here.

The double and multi-bedded rooms with modern ambiance are equipped with a shower and WC, and are barrier-free. A bright, friendly hall catering to up to 80 persons provides a pleasant setting for lively work sessions and creative group activities.

Hans Fischer Haus

Our dignified „Hans Fischer“ seminar and guesthouse is specially designed for advanced training events, meetings, school groups and other large groups.

The purpose-built facility is partly barrier-free, with several spacious seminar and group rooms, a cosy bistro, and a terrace perfect for outdoor BBQ nights.

Cosy: our Trupphaus

Our Trupphaus is ideal for groups of guests wanting to live and work intensively and undisturbed for a few days.

With 28 beds, a large recreation and dining hall, an open fire and a kitchen for self-caterers, the intimate Trupphaus provides the perfect setting for medium-sized groups, as well as a great view of the Westerwald.

Jagdhaus: charm for small groups

Smaller groups and families particularly feel at home here, as do those who love the spectacular view over the vast landscape!

With twelve beds, our smallest and oldest guesthouse has a kitchen, recreation room, and spacious, covered terrace ideal for balmy summer nights.

Apartments amongst nature

Our three approx 30-sq-m guest rooms each contain two beds, a kitchenette and a bathroom with WC; extra beds for children and adults can be arranged. Perfect for families, single guests, speakers, and all those who love nature!

Altenberg camping ground

The vast 14-ha site provides camping space for up to 2,200 people. The areas are well divided by trees and bushes, ensuring there are adequate places for the groups to retreat. Washhouses with showers, as well as lumber and firewood, are available. The site is also ideal for large events.

Kirschbaum camping ground

The vast „Kirschbaum“ site, also spanning 14 ha, is has a somewhat secluded location in the forest, and will particularly delight those who like things simple and natural. Like the Altenberg grounds, it also caters to up to 2,200 people. The site contains a washhouse with shower and two outdoor wash stations. Lumber and firewood are provided.
